

Auditdata Engage

An iPad hearing screener empowering hearing care providers to get new, qualified patients with less staff effort and cost

- ✓ Easy and intuitive to use
- ✓ Fast hearing screening
- ✓ Background noise compensation
- ✓ Test results provided to patient

Customization

Support non-audiology headsets iPads are calibrated to operate with selected headsets

Add instructional video to your test

Guide your customer with instructional videos

Configure multiple testflows

Test flows and result calculation is easy to configure and deploy

Reinforce your brand identity

Messaging and brand experience can be tailored to meet your specific needs

Compliance

GDPR and data sovereignty compliant

Fully compliant with GDPR and patient data geo location

Your data is secure with us

Auditdata is ISO 277001 certified

Open API for 3rd party systems

RESTful APIs for enriched usage

Synchronized with cloud

All screener data is hosted and backed up in the cloud

Provided as SaaS and always up-to-date

Continuously updated and available

Contents

Usage statistics

Detailed usage statistics can be downloaded

Shop reports

Each shop can view patient and leads data

Retrieval of screening information

Test results and patient data can be viewed in web browser

Can work in offline mode iPads can operate without Internet and results later uploaded

Configuration

Seamless integration to Auditdata OMS

Screener results and patient data are pushed directly to the OMS

Web admin configuration

Centralized website for all global settings

Multiple languages support

Any language can be used for designing

Enterprise app distribution

Support for VMware Airwatch® for controlled distribution

Fast and easy shop on

Only a few steps are required for each shop to get going